Development of service specifications

BMA

NHS England will work with the full range of relevant stakeholders in developing the draft specifications, prior to formal contract discussions with GPC. This includes for example the RCGP, relevant voluntary sector partners, patients, care home providers, and local system leaders. The specifications will be published in draft before being finalised.

What will PCNs do?

- Collaborative structures to support the partnership model of general practice
- Putting general practice back at the center of community care
- Providing better care for patients by diversifying and expanding our teams.
- Controlling the workload

What will PCNs not do?

- Solve every problem in the NHS
- Address third world debt
- Rid the world of nuclear arms
- Reverse global warming
- Enable time travel
- Resolve the impasse on Brexit
